

Sunday 1

GREECE: Al and Rachel MacInnes in Athens

Today, 1 November, Al MacInnes is sharing at a church in Chania, Crete and following up after a mission trip in the summer.

Monday 2

AUSTRIA: Samuel and Madeleine in Bregenz

Give thanks for the many ways God has blessed us during this season. Praise God for a positive start to our small group following the summer break and pray that He will lead the right people to join us, including those who do not yet know Him. Ask for wisdom in knowing which of our non-believing friends to invest time in and pray for open hearts and opportunities to share the gospel. Give thanks for a smooth pregnancy and that all is well with the baby. Pray for God's continued protection over both mother and baby during these final weeks and for a safe delivery.

Tuesday 3

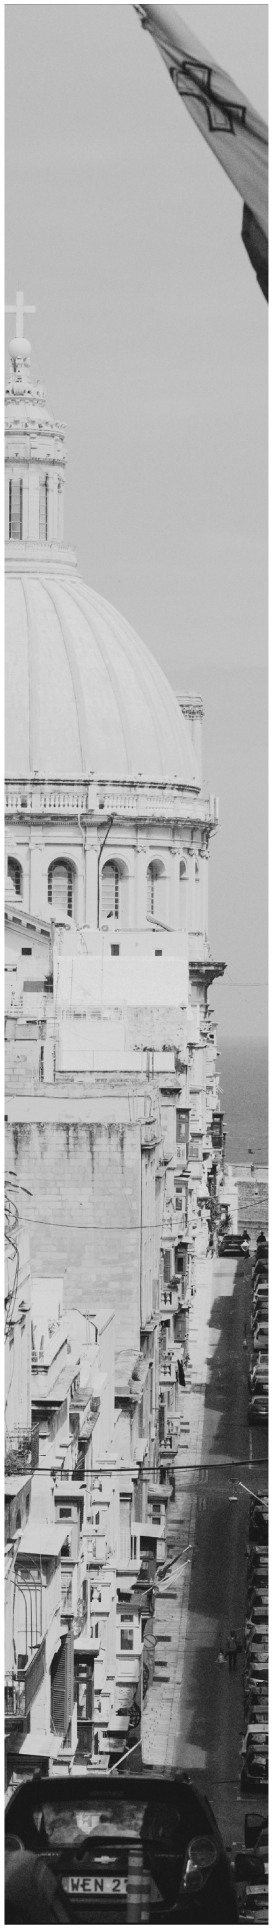

GERMANY: Christiaan and Kseniya Kooiman in Hagenow

Our small town is a place where people move from other cities when things in their life go wrong and they are searching for a cheap place to live. Often, they think they are only coming temporarily, but then they get stuck here for a long time. Please pray that during this difficult period they will find God.

The Lord Himself goes before you and
will be with you;
He will never leave you
nor forsake you.
Do not be afraid;
do not be discouraged.

Wednesday 4

ECMI: Biennial Planning Team

Please pray for all the planning underway for the Biennial Conference, especially for the morning sessions: the Bible teachings, worship and ministry reports.

Thursday 5

UK: Noah and Suzi Bartlett in Belfast

Praise God for Noah being able to spend a week with ELAM ministries, recording worship sessions that bless Persian speakers around the world. Praise God also for a trauma healing course Suzi was able to run (and Noah translated for) for seven Iranians and Afghans who participated. Please pray for South Kirk Presbyterian as it enters a time of pastoral vacancy. Also, for four Iranians who are attending Alpha at Orangefield Presbyterian Church.

Friday 6

AUSTRIA: David and Linda James in Villach

Neighbours and family: Please pray for Anda whose has given his life to the Lord! Anda has a non-malignant tumour and polyps around his spine, which seriously impact his mobility. Anda was fearful about the future and concerned because he cannot help practically, especially with their young kids anymore. He opened up to David with questions about spirituality and how he could connect with God. As David shared the Gospel, he soaked it up and in tears he gave his life to the Lord. He is now much more at peace and ease with his situation. Pray for his healing (doctors are currently assessing whether a difficult operation is needed) and for his wife Tamara to be saved.

Saturday 7

FRANCE: Jack and Sarah Winterburn in Saint Brieuc

Today, 7 November, is our church council. Please pray for good communication: we will do team building, fun, eating together, praying, worship, silent meditation and talking about vision.

Sunday 8

SLOVENIA: Sebastian and Gloria Forjan in Radovljica

Please pray for the different groups and ministries we have recently started in our church. Pray for our Romans Bible study, marriage group, and “Me and My Community” training, that God would use these opportunities to help people grow in faith, deepen relationships, and become better equipped to serve others. Also pray for the preparations for our summer camp in 2027. Pray that God would guide our plans and provide the people we need.

Monday 9

AUSTRALIA: Andrew and Kate Blackwell on sabbatical in Australia

Please pray for a time of deep rest and refreshment for body, mind and soul (Matthew 11:28). Pray that we will enjoy unhurried time with the Lord, growing in our love for Him, and that our time together as a family will be refreshing and strengthening. Pray also that this season of rest will bear lasting fruit in our character, marriage and future ministry. Please remember Henk Knol, who will be serving as Interim Field Ministries Director, and pray for wisdom, strength and guidance for him and our teams while we are away.

Tuesday 10

FINLAND: Kikke in Finland

Praise God for the medicine I have taken since March; my brain works better now. Thanks to the improved thinking ability, I managed to check the Inari-Saami translation of the Jesus Messiah picture book which we hope to publish in three Saami languages next year. Please, pray for Hannu in Inari who’ll process my corrections. Also On October 10, ECM Netherlands’ annual Sponsor Event for the publication of these Saami picture books, the team raised €2,500! A huge praise point.

Wednesday 11

USA: Dan and Anna Julian in Lancaster

Please pray for the students in Doctrine 1 as they reach the midpoint of the trimester. Pray that their studies would help them to love Jesus and others more and thank God for a very good enrolment at Spain's Escuela Evangélica de Teología this year. Pray also for our family as we invite students who don't know Jesus to a Thanksgiving meal. Pray that we would be the aroma of Christ to them, and that they would be drawn to follow Him.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

How will you use your vacation? Summer break? Gap year? See the needs and opportunities in Europe for yourself and hear what God has to say to you! Short-term can be anywhere from 2 weeks to 2 years. Serve alongside our long term missionaries and help share God's love with people who don't know Jesus.
We'll walk alongside you as you do.

Thursday 12
ITALY: Susanne Stoehr in Macherio
Please pray for my art exhibition in a gallery in Genoa, featuring 20 large-format watercolour paintings, which runs from 30 October to 14 November. Give thanks for a blessed opportunity to speak at an international women's club, where I shared a watercolour painting on the theme of "The Roots of Hope." Please also pray for Erica, who attended church following the talk, that she would continue to explore her faith and grow closer to the Lord.

Friday 13
ITALY: Erwin and Almut Buschlen in Montichiari
Tomorrow, 14 November, we will have a special Saturday evening Church service with a musician. With our teenagers we plan to prepare some songs to do during the aperitif. Please pray that people come to that event. We have to coordinate all our Christmas creative events. Please pray for a positive answer for the rooms we need, and that people will be touched by the short message.

Saturday 14
IRELAND: Geoff Donaldson, Ireland Director
Please pray for the ECM Ireland Council as they gather today, 14 November, for a day of reflection, planning and prayer. Pray that God will guide their discussions, grant them wisdom and unity, and give them a clear vision for the future.

Sunday 15
GERMANY: Gerrit and Jorine van Dijk in Rostock
Praise God for the ministry of Haltepunkt E and for the young people in Evershagen who have recently come to faith in Jesus. Pray that they will continue to grow in their faith and deepen their relationship with Him as they follow Him in discipleship. Please also pray for the team, asking God to grant them wisdom, strength and encouragement as they seek to serve and support these young believers.

Monday 16

GREECE: Giorgos and Luciana Christoforides in Athens

Today, November 16, we have a court hearing regarding the adoption of Ayzal (the 4-year-old refugee girl currently in our care). Please pray for God's favour, wisdom and peace throughout the process. One of our Roma boys, the first from our centre to complete middle school, is facing difficulties registering for high school. Please pray that these obstacles will be overcome so he can continue his studies and become the first one to graduate from high school.

Tuesday 17

PORTUGAL: Shane McGloin in Coimbra

Please pray for the GBU Coimbra international group. We are holding Portuguese conversation classes and English bible studies this semester. Please pray for contact with a good number of international students, and for God's Word to work in their hearts.

Wednesday 18

GERMANY: Vimal and Louise Vimalasekaran in Stutensee

Give thanks for the opportunity to visit family in Sri Lanka. Pray for the planning of the 2027 youth conference, that churches will be encouraged to invest in young people and equip them to reach their communities. Pray for volunteers and resources for the Christmas gift outreach to refugees in camps from 15–19 December. Give thanks for the four children (A, B, C and D), praying that they will grow in faith and serve the Lord throughout their studies. Pray also for Louise as she continues teaching German to migrant women.

Thursday 19

SERBIA: Branko and Rada Tihojevic in Zajecar

Please pray for Rada; she is recovering from chemotherapy, takes time to get body strength and complete healing. For a while, she got more strength and recovery improved. Lately got pain in her kidney, therapy stirred up the sand. She is overcoming it, feels better, since her health is improving day by day. There is another step for Rada to take, she needs to receive radiation therapy. Praise God, trusting that He will work everything out for good. Thanks for praying!

Friday 20

PORTUGAL: Eberson and Madalena David in Mora

Please pray for Beatriz and Isabela as they continue their studies at the Word of Life Biblical Institute in Hungary, that they will grow in their faith and be equipped for future ministry. Pray also for our physical, emotional and spiritual well-being, that the Holy Spirit will renew our strength each day and sustain us through the challenges of missionary life. We also pray that the Lord would guide our evangelism efforts in Portugal, opening doors to share the Gospel and preparing hearts to receive the truth of His Word. Pray that many Portuguese people will turn to Christ in repentance and come to know Him as their Lord and Saviour.

Saturday 21

SLOVENIA: Matej and Amy Bordon in Maribor

Please pray with us, thanking God for His faithfulness and guidance through every season. Pray that He would protect our four girls' young minds at school and university, give them good friends, and keep them safe. Pray for the Holy Spirit's help as I serve the Lord in the men's group, seniors' group, and student group. Please pray for a fresh start for the student group and a new semester, and that I may serve with wisdom, strength, humility, and joy.

Sunday 22

SERBIA: Tamara and Novica Srbulovic in Zajecar

We are deeply grateful for the many opportunities God provided for us to serve Him at Camp Timok over the past season. We thank Him for every group we hosted, and for different events and activities: children's and teenagers' camps, family gatherings, conferences, Roma family camp and music camp. We praise God for all volunteers and teachers who served at the camps, as well as for individuals and churches whose generous financial support made this wonderful season possible

Monday 23

ROMANIA: Anna Tovey in Timișoara

Praise God that after months of struggling with bureaucracy and paperwork I have finally received my residency card for Romania. This has been a huge effort but I have seen God's faithfulness and miracles during this time. Please pray as I start working towards more ministry opportunities mainly in the juvenile detention centre. Please also pray for the Romania/Hungary prayer days we will be having near the end of November. That will be a good time of connection and relationship building and of a deeper awareness of God.

Tuesday 24

ECM NEW ZEALAND: Fév Cotter, National Director

My semi-sabbatical is going well, and I am already feeling more rested. I will be doing a debrief from today, 24 November. Please pray that it will be a fruitful and life-giving time. Our son Shaun is doing much better (after his major surgery for oesophageal cancer at the end of April). However, he still has problems with eating. Please pray that these issues will resolve quickly.

Fév Cotter, National Director

Wednesday 25

GERMANY: Vimal and Louise Vimalasekaran in Stutensee

Tamil Ministry: Please pray for Pastor Anuraj, who works full-time while voluntarily helping to pastor the Tamil church plant. Pray for strength, wisdom and joy as he balances ministry and family life with his wife and three young children. Please also pray for Kamal, who is struggling with depression and uncertainty over possible deportation. Pray for God's peace, guidance and for his heart to be opened to the Gospel.

Thursday 26

CROATIA: Stephen and Tabita Bell in Sesvete

Praise God that Nikola (22-year-old student living 25km away) came to our church a year ago, after finding us on the Internet, and was just baptised with wonderful testimony. Thanks also that Sandro just came to church after following us on YouTube. Encouraged by seeing Nikola's testimony and baptism he decided to come. Pray for more "seekers" to find us and, importantly, God.

Friday 27

ECM FIELD MINISTRIES: Ireland and UK Cluster

From today, 27-29 November, the Ireland and UK cluster have their prayer retreat in Castledaly Manor, near Athlone, in the heart of Ireland. Pray for Rick Hill who comes to speak on strengthening our discipleship. Might we all grow as disciples - who make disciples - who make other disciples. Pray this as well for the children and youth in our midst.

Saturday 28

AUSTRALIA: Caren Laubscher in Croydon

Please pray for Caren who is sitting her final medical specialist exams which starts today, November 28-29, in Australia. These are the last big hurdles before she comes back to Europe to work as a Bi-vocational missionary again.

Sunday 29

REPUBLIC OF IRELAND: Jonathan and Nicola McCracken in Claremorris

Pray for new workers to come and join the growing church plant in Claremorris, either short term or long term. Andy and Rachel Millar will be moving on soon to a new church plant with Baptist Missions. Pray also for a Winter Market which is today, 29 November, and will be held in the Town Hall. The church will have a table stall with craft for children and literature to give out.

Monday 30

SPAIN: Edgar and Jane Álvarez in Madrid

Give thanks for a calm start to school for Jane. She teaches Y5 this year and is enjoying new opportunities to build staff friendships. Prayers for T whose dad then mum passed away within 6 months. Pray for time as Jane befriends her. Give thanks for a new head of school who is returning family values to school. Praise God!
