MONDAY 1

SPAIN: Chloë Wolfson, David and Myriam Trott in Roquetas de Mar

Thank God for the relationships developed over the year through Spanish classes and other activities. Praise God for those who have accepted a Bible and pray that they will come to know Him as he reveals Himself through scripture. Pray for the sustaining and building of relationships during summer and while we are away. Please keep praying with us for Rincón de Luz, a space we hope to open for migrants, for God's provision of prayer partners and supporters.

Rejoice always,

continually, give thanks in all circumstances;
for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

TUESDAY 2

PORTUGAL: Shane McGloin in Coimbra

Please pray for Sofia. She is a Roman Catholic from Brazil who came to the GBU Coimbra international Bible study last week. Please pray for Sofia to understand the true gospel, and that I would have wisdom to lead the studies in a way that will encourage her to keep attending without endorsing her Catholicism.

WEDNESDAY 3

ECM BRITAIN: Sarah Hay, HR and Member Care Manager

The British Workers Retreat happens in the UK today from 3-5 June. Our title is 'Time to reflect and recharge'. Many of our missionaries will be attending, along with staff/trustees. Please pray that fellowship, worship, sessions and devotional talks (led by our own Pete Benest) will be an encouragement to all. Pray that God will speak to each one of the participants such that they will leave refreshed and recharged.

THURSDAY 4

SPAIN: Edgar and Jane Álvarez in Madrid

Our young architect friend R lost her job suddenly and you prayed. God provided a new job in Mallorca. Ongoing prayers for her complex work visa are appreciated. Last month a colleague of Jane's confided she is reading a Christian book as they shared a room on school camp. Pray for fruit from that. Finally, give thanks for J, our home church youth worker, who raised money through the Kilt walk to enable 4 youngsters to attend SU camp this summer. Pray for God to work in the lives of these and many young people this summer.

Pray for Ron and Brenda as they provide guidance, build fruitful partnerships, and help connect students with opportunities that advance the gospel.

SATURDAY 6

SPAIN: Julia Mercer-Wilson in Tarragona

From today, 6-12 June, is another Spiritual Transformation Week in Spanish. Due to the lack of male caregivers, this week will be women only. Thank God for placing it on each person's heart to come for a week and give Him access to deep parts of their lives. May each one have times with the Lord that allow them to experience the truth of His word through all their senses and emotions. Pray that God would lead men into formation as caregivers and for church leaders (often male) to continue their own healing journeys and to be emotionally and spiritually healthy leaders.

SUNDAY 7

Pray for the Church Conference which starts today, 7 June, at Camp Timok, for great encouragement for the believers in the south of Serbia by renewing fellowship together. Conference theme: The mind focused on the Spirit leads to life and peace, but the mind focused on the flesh leads to death.

THURSDAY 11

NEW ZEALAND: Féy Cotter, Director ECM New Zealand

Please join us in praising God for our son's (Shaun) successful operation for oesophageal cancer. He continues to make progress in his recovery, but it is often two steps forward and then one step backwards. It will be a long recovery journey for him, but we are hoping he will be discharged from hospital in early June. We are very grateful for the wonderful care he is receiving from the medical staff.

FRIDAY 12

GREECE: Anna Janková in Athens

With the coming summer, our ministry will welcome many visiting teams as we share about human trafficking and our anti sex-trafficking work. Together, we visit areas of prostitution to pray for those working there. Join us in praising God for those willing to learn more and pray with us rather than turn away from suffering. Pray for wisdom as we try to present the reality of prostitution truthfully while protecting people's dignity and avoiding sensationalising their stories.

Praise God for Australian youth group praying for Polish youth groups and encouraging hearing stories of prayers answered. May this continue to grow and encourage both sides to be in awe of God's power and mercy. Praise God for Logos Baptist Church weekend away with 70 attendees.

Please pray for today, 22–26 June, as we hold the evangelistic baseball camp we are planning. Pray specifically for the team from the U.S. as they come, for our church community as we prepare all the local details and relationships, and most of all that the love of Christ is poured out in a special way over our whole team and all of Meco during this week, so that children and adults alike are open to receiving Him.

Pray that the Lord will open up doors for us to share the gospel with friends and work colleagues.

FRIDAY 26

REPUBLIC OF IRELAND: Colin and Ally Holmes in Ferrybank

Give thanks for a number of people being baptised in Ferrybank Church at the end of June. We are encouraged by those who have been growing in the love and life of Jesus in our midst and who will share their personal stories of how Jesus has changed their lives. We have also appreciated more people engaging in our life groups and a course on 'finding our voice in prayer' as our understanding and practise of this has expanded.

SATURDAY 27

Thank God for growing relationships with Roma children, teens, and families through daily activities. Pray these connections open doors to share Christ's love. Pray for summer camps: smooth logistics, Spirit-led teaching, and that Roma children and teens experience God's love deeply. Pray for grace to balance family responsibilities and ministry commitments, trusting God's provision.

SUNDAY 28

GERMANY: Christiaan and Kseniya Kooiman in Hagenow
